September 5th Speaker, Eric Golub

Eric Golub is a national Jewish columnist, author, speaker and comedian who has spoken in all 50 states. "Jewish Lunacy" is his newest comedy book where he teaches people how to use humor to be better advocates for their religion of choice. He also speaks about American politics, foreign policy, and the stock market. In his spare time, he monitors the Middle East Studies departments of college campuses and exposes anti-Israel professors. Before going on the speaking circuit, he spent 15 years as a stockbrokerage and oil professional on Wall Street. He lives in Los Angeles. His hobbies include the National Football League, trying new hamburger joints, and watching "Murder, She Wrote."

Volunteer At Eastside Baby
Corner...Change The Life Of A Child

September 9th, Robin has 2 shifts reserved for Redmond Rotary: 5:15–6:45PM & 7–8:30 PM.

Over 100 people volunteer at EBC each week! Our volunteers are people like you, your colleagues at work, your friends, and your children. They are people who want to share a wonderful service opportunity, and help make life better for others. As EBC founder Karen Ridlon says, "Everyone wants to make a difference, and EBC is a great way to help right now, right here, in your community."
